 KIRYUHO CELEBRATES 30 YEARS OF PRACTICE IN EUROPE *****

This seminar will be the opportunity to celebrate with Kajo Tsuboi - Kiryuho founder - and many Kiryuho teachers from Japan, Europe and Australia, the first Kiryuho workshop in Europe in 1985. It will also be the opportunity to open a new Kiryuho era in Europe for the next 30 years to come !

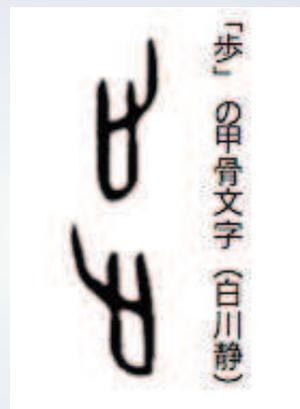

The natural and recharging environment of La Fontaine de l'Aube will allow us to practice Kiryuho connected with nature and elements.

This event is co-organised by La Fontaine de l'Aube,

Kajo Tsuboi majored in psychology and graduated from Waseda University. He interested in Japanese archery, Taoism and various forms of meditation including Rama-krishna and Vivekananda's way. He made contact with Morihei Ueshiba, the founder of Aikido, and practiced for many years. He also studied various dances, Seitai(ki-energy medical way), Shinto practice, etc. He founded the Kiryuho Institute in Tokyo in 1979 and has Kyoko Sato began studies with the founder of Mobius Kiryuho, Kajo Tsuboi in 1979.

She has been a Mobius Kiryuho practitioner for 20 years. She teaches throughout Japan and travels regularly to France, Germany, Belgium and Italy to give courses in this art of Flowing Movement.

Luc Blanchard begins Kiryuho in 1992 and meet, two years later, master Kajo Tsuboi, founder of this art.

He founds in the spirit of this practice, a complement to his theatrical research : a matter still in motion . He decided to go to the sources of Kiryuho and travels to Japan to practice Hikari no Bu, a martial art, natural extension of Kiryuho . He follows this teaching with Kajo Tsuboi for over 12 years.

Yonnel Perrier practice Kiryuho since 1996 with master Kajo Tsuboi and teaches regularly at Chambéry for 10 years. He is also invited to teach in Lyon, Paris and Aix-en-Provence.

He frequently travels to Japan to deepen his knowledge. He also studied Hikari no Bu, a martial art of non-resistance, created by master Kajo Tsuboi from the principles of Kiryuho and the art of master Akeji Sumeyoshi.
